A Note from a Client

No Matter How Long the Winter, Spring is Sure to Follow

I came to Pam's Promise in December. Pam's Promise has been a life changing experience for me. Since being here I have started making goals and meeting the goals I have set for myself. I have always been kind of shy and am now starting to come out of my shell some. I have started opening up about my feelings and I know that if I had not come here I would still be keeping things bottled up. One of the staff members even started doing a Bible study on anxiety which helped me to start relying on God more instead of trying to handle everything on my own. I thank God for opening the door for me to come to Pam's Promise. I have never had the kind of encouragement and support that I am now receiving here. I am very thankful to have been given the opportunity to be a part of their program.
